Kill the messenger-Slatzer is a hero!

By ZetaReticuli1111

Liar huh? Says Spoto, huh? Spoto is the liar, he must have been paid off, he left out a lot of information on MM-JFK-RFK he knew, some of this was found in his original notes, but left out of the book. He is the one who spun the lies to deflect away from the Kennedys and tried to implicate the maid and Dr. as the killers. Also garbage is that Dimaggio and Monroe would remarry. How is it no one knew about this, no caterer, no arrangements, no dress revealed by her designer Jean Louis, nothing. If Slatzer was such a liar, just how did he know so much in 1974 which has over the years been revealed by others. I saw a documentary with Slatzer, Jane Russell, and MM's first husband James Dougherty, all together sharing stories of her. Who is the liar here, Jane, James, or just Robert? Try and rewrite history all you want, now that the principles are dead, I am sure there will be attempts. Like it or not, Jeanne Carmen lived next to MM and knew her, as did Robert Slatzer. If you really want to know the real Marilyn and what happened, this was a ground breaking book, absolutely riviting. The first time I read it I was in shock, back then we didn't know what we know now. But, like I said over these past 30-40 years the truth has come out, so now who is the liar?

Best Marilyn book I have ever read

By Sharon Jewel

This was written by Marilyn Monroe's best friend and confidante. The book clearly shows that Marilyn was murdered, with believable evidence, autopsy reports and documented conversations from wiretaps. I don't know why people doubt Bob Slatzer's claim that he was close to Marilyn. Just because Marilyn wasn't public about their relationship, for whatever reason, doesn't mean that it didn't exist. Recently I stumbled upon a tabloid magazine from the 50's with an article about Marilyn and Bob Slatzer's affair. Maybe it was a secret because it was an affair. Bob Slatzer was portrayed in this article as Marilyn's secret lover, and apparently it was going on at a time when she was with Bob DiMaggio, so it makes sense that it was kept undercover, (no pun intended). It was undoubtedly true if back then, the paparazzi discovered the affair and published it in a 1950's tabloid magazine with photographs of them together. Marilyn was probably the one that wouldn't or couldn't go public with this relationship and Bob probably wanted the world to know,....and he did after Marilyn had nothing to lose. Their affair might have been short lived, but their friendship lived on. Bob writes this book knowing things only a best friend could know and shares these parts of Marilyn's personality with whomever reads the book. The book unravels the mystery of her death in a way that is so clear, that after having read the book, I have no doubts about what happened in the end. Bob tells the facts and lets you figure it out for yourself. This is the best Marilyn book out there. It is a keeper about the life and death of Marilyn Monroe.

THE DEFINITIVE BOOK ABOUT THE LIFE & DEATH OF MONROE

By A Customer

I wish this book would be reprinted. At the time it was first published it caused a lot of controversy. It has stood the test of time. Many people were "leery" of the assertions that Marilyn Monroe had been murdered, but since this author's long and trying efforts to show the real facts of what happened to Marilyn, many of the real facts he presented to the public in 1974 have been made public. Many people did not want or know whether to believe Slatzer's accounts of Monroe's keeping a diary, and recording her accounts of "what Bobby Kennedy told her". Recently released and published FBI & CIA documents "PROVE" that Slatzer was INDEED RIGHT ABOUT MARILYN & THE KENNEDY BROTHERS. A recently de-classified CIA DOCUMENT BOLDLY STATES THAT IN 1962, "THE CIA WAS AWARE THAT MARILYN MONROE KEPT A SO-CALLED DIARY THAT RECORDED CONVERSATIONS SHE HAD WITH THE THEN ATTORNEY GENERAL, ROBERT F. KENNEDY. THE CONTENTS OF HER DIARY DISCUSSED AMONG OTHER THINGS; THE PLOT TO KILL CASTRO; THE FACT THE CIA/GOVERNMENT HAD MAFIA HOODLUMS ON THE PAYROLL; etc. At least this author personally knew his subject and has made countless efforts to clear the smeared reputation the executives at 20th Century Fox Film Corp., gave her, as well as the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office, and The Los Angeles County Coroner's Office placed on her. The Studio at the time of her death, did not make an effort to state they had in fact re-hired MM for "Something's Got To Give", along with the fact they had given her a raise in salary. The Coroner, The D.A.'s Office, and certain higher ups in the LAPD have kept closed mouthed about the truth of her murder and continue this ridiculous behavior today. Even former Deputy District Attorney, John Miner, who witnessed her autopsy, now admits, as Slatzer had written in 1974, that Monroe did not in fact, commit suicide, and DID in fact, have relations with the Both John & Bobby Kennedy and made recordings at the suggestions of her psychiatrist, Ralph Greenson, of said relations. This author is probably the most well informed and possibly the last remaining close confidant that Marilyn Monroe had. If there are any more Biographies written on Marilyn Monroe, I hope that Mr. Robert Slatzer is the author. That way, we can set the record straight once again, and hopefully forget about the mis-information that people have been writing for the last 16 or more years.
