Only 70% of the movie version

By Karl Dahlfred

My 8 year old son enjoyed it very much up until the part where it cuts off and leaves the reader hanging. These junior novelizations tend to follow the plot of the corresponding movies up until a point and then just stop, as if to force you to go out and watch the movie. But the whole reason I buy the junior novels for my son is that he gets the superhero story without the intensesness of the adult movie version. But when he only gets 70% of the movie, I have to end up having to tell him how the story ends, based on the movie version that I saw. So, this is a decent book, but it is mildly disappointing that the book is incomplete.

Audible version ends halfway through the movie story

By Lenny

I got the Audible version of this, 1 hour and 50 minutes of narration. This is essentially a narrative of the first half of the movie. It follows the movie very closely, and doesn't add anything new, until the end of the audiobook where it diverges significantly. Unlike the movie, the book ends on a cliffhanger roughly halfway through the movie.

If you (or your child) have watched the movie, there's really no need to listen to this. Even if you haven't, I'm not sure you'd want your story to end halfway at a cliffhanger. I'm not sure if the book and MP3 version are the same since Amazon's "Look Inside" doesn't show the chapters.

More because it was well written....

By Jonski

This book was written very well and had some of the actual quotes from the movie. But it didn't follow the plot and jumps from the beginning of the movie to the end. Any Bucky and Steve relationship Isn't really there so... =P And NO ROMANOGERS!!!!!! (StevexNatasha) They aren't even friends really.....

Still pretty good if it reading it for the Cap action. U can't hate him!
