Hi, My name is Mayo and I'm about to show you a simple, real life inspired step-by-step formula that will help you to achieve first class marks in your University degree. How can I make such a bold statement? My story I walked into final year of university holding a border-line third class in Bsc Economics, this meant I required first class marks in my final year of University to graduate with a Upper Second-Class Honours(2.1). I was absolutely clueless as to how I would achieve this. I knew my University Degree was crucial for landing my dream job and my own personal achievement. I feared that i'd be a disappointment to my parents, especially after all the sacrifices they had poured into my education all my life. I later sought tutors, lecturers and friends for advice and support to achieve first class marks but nobody believed it would be possible. I made a decision to stop making excuses and pursue my academic dreams. Throughout my long, tedious and memorable final year of University, I discovered and applied different effective strategies and steps that helped me to improve my marks significantly to first class. I will share these strategies with you in the book. Long story short, I woke up on results day logged on my student portal and saw that I had achieved first class marks and my dream university degree. Following my graduation, I have been able to work with other university students and share these steps and strategies with them. Several of these students have successfully applied just a handful of these steps to achieve their academic dreams, imagine the possibilities if you apply them all! I decided to put together everything I have learned from my personal experiences and my interactions with other university students into this book. My purpose in writing this is to inspire you to believe that your dream university degree is possible and show you simple proven practical steps so that you can take action to make this a reality. Here's what you'll learn in this book: •A simple step by step formula to achieve first class marks. •How to develop a rock solid work ethic and stay motivated throughout the year without burnout. •How to write first class essays. •How to kill procrastination and manage time like a boss, even if you are multitasking other activities alongside studies. •2 radical and extremely effective strategies to overcome non-clinical panic, anxiety, stress, frustration, burnout and depression. •The mind of the examiner exposed. Find out exactly what examiners are looking for and use this knowledge to squeeze maximum marks from them. •Simple revision and exam strategies to finish the year without messing up. •How to take effective notes and make the most out of lectures.

A Refreshing Perspective

By uwa

I thoroughly enjoyed reading this book. I will highly recommend it not just to University students but learners in every stage of their educational pursuits.

The writing itself is seamless and easy to grasp. The views are stated lucidly and the reasoning behind each and every step is explained properly. This is definitely a manual that can be read by any and everybody without the fear of verbosity while dealing with a packed timetable.

One thing I particularly enjoyed was the book's specificity. There are several self-help books in the market, however to find one that is specifically tailored to the challenges students face is often problematic. I am also pleased that the book is not merely a compendium of experimental theories - but rather a formula which has been tried and trusted, even during the author's academic pursuits.

In all, a great read. I will definitely refer to this book continually.
