Just the truth....

By Paula Parker

In the RELUCTANT HEALER David Elliott helps you cut through the fog and reach the truth. Using the healing techniques offered here, you will be able unravel the truth about who you are and where you are going. There is no fluff or filler here, only honest straight talk and effective healing methods. The truth is you are a healer and there is work to be done to unearth your core. With humanity and caring David Elliott has plainly and simply laid out the steps you can take to uncover the truth about yourself.

While using the methods in this book as a guide I have reached achievements I once thought unattainable. I look forward to seeing how much is possible.

Helpful for the Soul Searcher

By Margaret Arvidson

I read this book on the recommendation of a friend, teacher and coach during a time when I was off studying about my own spirituality.

I was worried at first that this book would be too much overload on an otherwise throbbing mind and psyche, but it wasn't. It was thoughtful, insightful and invited me into the life Elliott leads. Sure, it's about him -- there's nothing that proclaims otherwise!

And that's what I wanted to know -- how does this life come about? This healing work? And how do you fit it into your own everyday perception of yourself? And the perception others have of you? More importantly -- does that perception matter?

This book truly helped me on this journey of mine and I'm glad it's in my library!
